Receiving euros: 1% currency conversion fee (capped at £1,000) for payments you receive in euros and converted to pounds.

We convert any payments you get in EUR to GBP before the money appears in your account. We'll charge a 1% fee that's capped at £1,000 for doing this.

The payer will need your IBAN (International Bank Account Number), which you can find in your app.

The vast majority (but not all) of these payments will come from bank accounts within Europe and through the SEPA Credit Transfer scheme.

Receiving a payment in a foreign currency that is not GBP or euros: 1% currency conversion fee (capped at £1,000) for payments received by you and converted to pounds. Effective as of 30 January 2024.

We convert any payments you get in these currencies to GBP before the money appears in your account. We'll charge a 1% fee that's capped at £1,000 for doing this.

The person paying you will need your IBAN (International Bank Account Number), which you can find in your app. You may have to pay other costs, taxes or charges related to your Monzo account, which are outside of our control and not charged by us. For example, other banks may charge you for sending money to your Monzo account.

Sending a payment in a foreign currency: Our fee is made up of a fixed amount and a variable amount and it will depend on where you are sending the payment and in what currency. The fixed amount will be between £0.50 and £2.68 and the variable amount will be between 0% and 1.30%. You can find a breakdown of how the charges are calculated here.

We use a third party exchange rate which is provided by a third party and is usually the mid market rate. You'll always see the exchange rate and the exact charge which will apply in your app before making an international payment.
